

English Department
English Literature and Composition, Advanced Placement

One Year: Ten Credits.
On UC/CSU approved course list.

Course Overview:

The English Literature and Composition course explores and analyzes literature recommended by the Advanced Placement Program. The course emphasizes written literary analysis that encourages development of individual student writing styles. With an emphasis on critical thinking, the course requires rigorous style analysis of the selected texts.

Prerequisite:

Senior standing as well as the ability to read college-level literature and related texts.

Recommendation:

An A or B in Honors American Literature or an A in American Literature.

Homework:

Average one hour per day depending on the student's reading/writing level.